Hymns: 105, 96, 103, 669

Collect: O God, who by the leading of a star manifested your only Son to the peoples of the earth: mercifully grant that we, who know you now by faith, may at last behold your glory face to face; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever

Isaiah 60.1-6 The Ingathering of the Dispersed

Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord has risen upon you.

For darkness shall cover the earth, and thick darkness the peoples; but the Lord will arise upon you, and his glory will appear over you.

Nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your dawn.

Lift up your eyes and look around; they all gather together, they come to you; your sons shall come from far away, and your daughters shall be carried on their nurses' arms.

Then you shall see and be radiant; your heart shall thrill and rejoice, because the abundance of the sea shall be brought to you, the wealth of the nations shall come to you.

A multitude of camels shall cover you, the young camels of Midian and Ephah; all those from Sheba shall come.

They shall bring gold and frankincense, and shall proclaim the praise of the Lord.

Ephesians 3.1-12 Paul's Ministry to the Gentiles: This is the reason that I Paul am a prisoner for Christ Jesus for the sake of you Gentiles— for surely you have already heard of the commission of God's grace that was given to me for you, and how the mystery was made known to me by revelation, as I wrote above in a few words, a reading of which will enable you to perceive my understanding of the mystery of Christ. In former generations this mystery was not made known to humankind, as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit: that is, the Gentiles have become fellow-heirs, members of the same body, and sharers in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel. Of this gospel I have become a servant according to the gift of God's grace that was given to me by the working of his power. Although I am the very least of all the saints, this grace was given to me to bring to the Gentiles the news of the boundless riches of Christ, and to make everyone see what is the plan of the mystery hidden for ages in God who created all things; so that through the church the wisdom of God in its rich variety might now be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly places. This was in accordance with the eternal purpose that he has carried out in Christ Jesus our Lord, in whom we have access to God in boldness and confidence through faith in him.

Matthew 2.1-12 The Visit of the Wise Men: In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, asking, 'Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star at its rising, and have come to pay him homage.' When King Herod heard this, he was frightened, and all Jerusalem with him; and calling together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born. They told him, 'In Bethlehem of Judea; for so it has been written by the prophet: "And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for from you shall come a ruler who is to shepherd my people Israel." ' Then Herod secretly called for the wise men and learned from them the exact time when the star had appeared. Then he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, 'Go and search diligently for the child; and when you have found him, bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage.' When they had heard the king, they set out; and there, ahead of them, went the star that they had seen at its rising, until it stopped over the place where the child was. When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy. On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother; and they knelt down and paid him homage. Then, opening their treasure-chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they left for their own country by another road.

Post Communion Prayer: Lord God, the bright splendour whom the nations seek: may we who with the wise men have been drawn by your light discern the glory of your presence in your Son, the Word made flesh, Jesus Christ our Lord

Keep in your prayers: Pat Coward; George Tout; Janet Horner; Jim Dyer; Ben Grimsey; Nikki; Christopher Heaven; our pastoral visiting team

NOTICES:

Our new vicar Nigel Guthrie will be licensed to this parish on Tuesday 16 January at 7:30pm at St David's. Sarah, Bishop of Crediton (soon to be Bishop of London), will officiate. Refreshments will be served afterwards and everyone is welcome

There will be a charitable giving collection NEXT SUNDAY 14 January for the YMCA

There is a box at the back of the church if you would like to contribute towards the larder welcome that we are making for Nigel Guthrie and his family. The box will be here next week too

Is there anyone who might like to help with Junior Church? We need two adults there each week, and this is a small but important ministry with a commitment to help about once a month. Please speak to Bill, Sarah H, Helen S or Ruth if you are interested

The Angel Tree team thank us for our gifts. 56 men at the prison participated, and they sent 94 presents to their children. They couldn't have done this without our help. From Philippa Latham

Lunch club dates for this term are: 18 January, 8 February, 15 March. Speak to Sue Wilson

Silent Prayer in the Lady Chapel: Alternate Tuesday & Thursday evenings 7:30-8pm, optional coffee afterwards. January 11 & 23, February 8 & 20, March 8 & 20. See poster at the back, or speak to Christopher Durrant. "For God alone my soul waits in silence, for my hope is from him." Psalm 62.5

Refugee Week 18-24 June is in the planning stage. The aim is to promote all the good work which is happening locally and make people aware of all the positive contributions made by refugees and asylum seekers living in the UK. If you'd like to be a part of this, we will meet at 6:00 pm on Thursday 11 January at Exeter Community Centre in St David's Hill

Notices: if you have notices to share, please send them to notices@stdavidschurchexeter.org.uk or give them to Helena in church
