

Adrian Hewitt and Barbara Allin were thanked for the work they put into the report, and also Sarah Watts, the independent financial advisor. Dave Allin spoke on behalf of the treasurers. See attached report.

The report was proposed by Sue Wilson and Seconded by Keith Postlethwaite. All were in favour.

6. Social and Fabric Reports.

Transformation Project - Dave Allin reported that we are waiting to hear if further grants have been agreed. The latest vision day saw great enthusiasm from the congregation.

Tom acknowledged the number of volunteers involved in the project.

St. Michael's bell - needs to be rung regularly to keep it in proper service. It was suggested that St. David's ringers might like to ring it.

7. Servers

Chris Smith reported that new servers have been trained at St. David's bringing the number to 12.

Thanks was given to Chris and Charles at St. Michael's who have shown great commitment helping at the 8am service.

There is a Company of Servers - 3 processed this year at the cathedral.

There was a request for more servers.

8. Appointments to PCC

There are 4 vacancies - 3 for St. David's and 1 for St. Michael's.

Mary Kirkland was nominated to serve another year.

No other nominations came forward. The posts can be filled during the year.

St. Michael's members are:- David Hastings (ex officia), George Hexter, Adrian Hewitt, Richard Parker, Richard Barnes, Chris Heaven, Lizzie Hewitt and Stephanie Aplin.

There was a request to reduce the numbers on the DCC at St. Michael's. It was suggested that it be brought to the next DCC meeting to consider.

There are 3 nominations for the DCC as Michael Lester, Marianne Connors and David Beadle are all up for re-election.

It was not necessary to propose Lizzie Hewitt and Stephanie Aplin as they are on the PCC committee.

Standing Committee - clarification was requested about this committee.

Most of the work is done by email. Members are - Tom, the curate, Church Wardens, chapel wardens, treasurer, reader and Simon Harrison. This committee can make decisions on behalf of the PCC between meetings. Meetings are minuted and reported at the next PCC meeting.

9. Appointment of Sidespersons

Avril Pattinson listed the sides persons for both churches.
They were appointed by acclaim.

10. Appointment of Independent Examiner of Accounts

We are to continue with Sarah Watts from Thomas Westcott.
This was proposed by Bill Pattinson and seconded by Sarah Black.
All were in favour.

11. AOB

The following people were thanked for their continued support - Ashley and Jo Potter for the Parish Magazine, Graham Lurwell from the College who prints the weekly news sheet and Ann Barnet for the bible reading notes for St. David's.

David Beadle was thanked for organising the lecture evenings at St. Michael's.

Bill Pattinson's re-licensing will be discussed at the next PCC meeting.
Thanks was give to Tom for his work and the successful meeting.

The meeting closed at 9.10pm
